LAYING DOWN THE LAW ON LITTER

STONY BROOK, NY – Suffolk County Legislator Kara Hahn welcomed Sheriff Vincent DeMarco's Labor Assistance Program [SLAP] to Setauket and Stony Brook in an effort to remove litter and debris from along Nicolls Road and the Route 25A corridor. At the Legislator's request, previously, detainees assigned to the program have been used to clean litter along Routes 112 and 347 in Coram, Port Jefferson Station, South Setauket and Stony Brook. All SLAP clean-up crews are comprised of pre-screened, low-security inmates.
